

The School District of Pickens County Literacy Model

The School District of Pickens County Literacy Model is aligned with the District Strategic Plan, South Carolina English Language Arts Academic Standards and research-based best practices for literacy instruction in all subjects and at all grade levels. Built on a foundation of strong professional development, this model provides a framework for differentiated instruction with a focus on literacy immersion, engaged learners and increased student achievement.

Professional Development

*District/School PD *Workshops/Classes *Professional Conferences *Book Chats *Webinars

